Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center
The Rotunda
Washington, DC

“From Girls’ Education to Female Empowerment: Celebrating 50 Years of Women In Development” commemorates International Women’s Day and Women’s History Month by celebrating women leaders in international development and foreign policy.

Creative Associates International and our partners honor all attendees for their leadership in international development and foreign policy as we continue work to improve the status and quality of life of women and girls in communities around the world.

Thank you to our guests and valued partners.
